

Turks & Caicos Dive Provo Aug. 28 - Sept. 4, 2011

Our inaugural Summer Sundown trip was small in numbers but big on adventure. Scuba Shack divers made the trek to Providenciales over the 2010 Labor Day weekend and enjoyed the diving and convenience so much that we've decided to extend the trip to a full week.

We will fly to Providenciales, Turks and Caicos on Sunday, Aug. 28 and enjoy a full week in the fun and clear blue waters off the walls of West Caicos, Northwest Point and French Cay. The clean comfortable boats of Dive Provo along with the friendly professional staff will make for a memorable diving adventure. The trip - led by Scuba Shack instructor Jeff Cinciripino - will be open to a maximum of 16 divers.

The trip includes:

- Seven nights at the Comfort Suites Hotel
- Six days of two tank morning dives with Dive Provo
- Continental Breakfast each morning at Comfort Suites
- $50 per room beverage credit

Come and dive the extensive coral reef system with abundant fish life, excellent visibility and a superior level of dive service from Dive Provo. Give us a call if you have additional questions or to sign up!

Trip Snapshot

Destination:	Providenciales, Turks & Caicos
Dates:	Aug. 28 - Sept. 4, 2010
Price:	$1,100 per person, double occupancy
Airfare:	Not Included
Group Leader:	Jeff Cinciripino
Deposit Required:	$250 prior to April 30, 2011
Balance Due Date:	July 20, 2011
Meals:	Continental breakfast included each morning
Diving:	6 days of 2 boat dives each day
Transfers:	Not included ($20 for taxi)
Accommodations:	Comfort Suites

Additional Information: Single occupancy rate available, Nitrox for 12 dives (pre-booked) is $110 for the week. Afternoon dives and night dives available during the week. Scuba Shack always suggests dive travel and divers insurance through Divers Alert Network. Check our website for details.